Optimal techno-economic design of hybrid PV/wind system comprising battery energy storage: Case ... However, because of the interruption of RESs, it is a great challenge to verify the energy balance between load and supply without using high-capacity energy storage system [9]. This leads to extra initial capital cost and COE as well [10] .

Energy storage can be done in a variety of ways, such as storing energy in batteries, storing energy as heat or cold, or storing energy as hydrogen or other fuels. Energy storage is important for the reliable and efficient use of energy, as well as to provide backup power during times when renewable sources are not available. 2.

The purpose of the composite energy storage system is to handle the fluctuations and intermittent characteristics of the renewable source, and hence provide a steady output power.
